Acknowledgments

The Official Minority Language Office, on behalf of Saskatchewan Learning, would like to thank all of the publishers and distributors who graciously contributed complimentary copies of material for evaluation purposes.

We have designed our evaluation system to ensure that educators who are familiar with the courses of study are the ones who evaluate the materials for relevance and curriculum fit.

Saskatchewan Learning also wishes to thank the numerous teachers and consultants who participated in the evaluation of material for Core French.

Introduction

Introduction

The Official Minority Language Office is pleased to provide you with Core French : A Resource List Update for Grades 7 to 12, a list of resources recommended for the teaching of Core French at the elementary, middle and secondary levels. These annotated titles are not mandatory nor do they represent the entirety of resources available. Generally, the annotations give specific information regarding how the document best supports the Core French program. Suggestions are given as to the best possible uses of the document, whether for student use or teacher reference.

In addition, please make reference to the Learning Resources Distribution Centre catalogue for Saskatchewan Learning documents.

Identification of Resources

The identification of quality resources to support the objectives of the curriculum guides is critical in maintaining effective actualization of Core French curricula. The system of evaluation has been designed to ensure that educators who know the curricula will evaluate the material to verify that it meets the needs of teaching Core French in Saskatchewan.

Saskatchewan Learning defines a resource as any work that shows, explains or illustrates notions or that proposes activities to be used in teaching.

How to Use This Resource List

The resources included in this list are grouped alphabetically by title under the headings : General Resources and Middle Level Programs. Bibliographical information, followed by an annotation, selected Fields of experiences, (Themes and Topics) as well as Suggested use accompany each title.

Titles and Descriptions

An example of a print citation follows :

C'est le temps : Étienne (CD). Collectif. Woodstock : Educorock Productions Inc. (TES), 2003. Order Number LA05 ($17.00).

This CD and teacher manual include a selection of up-beat sing-along songs and activities to be used as a supplementary teaching tool to language development. The teacher manual has a variety of activities that accompany each song providing students with practical opportunities to demonstrate their listening, reading and written comprehension skills. The exercises vary from easy to moderate in level of difficulty. The added bonus of websites, activity and game ideas make the reinforcement of the structures covered in these songs challenging.

Also available :
Teacher's Book
Order Number LA05B ($28.00)
Set (CD & Book)
Order Number LA05S (40.00)

Fields of experience (Themes and Topics) :
Divers

Suggested Use :
- Core French, Grades 7 to 12

The Suggested use is provided to give an indication of the appropriate grade levels at which the resource may be used. However, these can be adjusted according to the knowledge and linguistic competencies of the students. The Suggested use will also change according to how the work is used (motivation, group work, individual work etc). In most cases, the Suggested use spans several grade levels to better meet the individual needs of students as well as the needs of teachers.

Grade Level Index

Titles are listed alphabetically under suggested grade level uses.

Media Index

Titles are listed alphabetically under each media designation.

Distributor Directory

The abbreviations enclosed in parentheses following the publisher or producer represent the distributor. The full names, addresses, fax and phone numbers of these companies are given in this section. Please note that some distributors provide a toll free 1-800 phone number.

Criteria for Recommendation

The inclusion of a resource as recommended material in this list indicates that it respects the following criteria : conforms to the requirements of the curriculum guides; respects proper language use; respects all religions and moral values; and respects the guidelines of Saskatchewan Learning in regard to the elimination of stereotypes and discrimination.

Note : The selection of resources remains the responsibility of schools. Where relevant, the annotations contain cautions that are intended to alert teachers and teacher librarians to potentially controversial content within the selections. Each school should preview the documents mentioned in the resource update before selecting resources to ensure that they meet the needs of the school and the community. In order to do this, reference can be made to the school division policy on resource selection, as well as to the following Saskatchewan Learning documents :
Diverse Voices : Selecting Equitable Resources for Indian and Métis Education;
Learning Resource Centres in Saskatchewan : A Guide for Development;
Resource-based Learning : Policy, Guidelines and Responsibilities for Saskatchewan Learning Resource Centres; and Selecting Fair and Equitable Materials.

These Saskatchewan Learning documents pertaining to print and audiovisual materials offer excellent suggestions concerning policy development and the selection of resources. If they are not found in your school, they can be ordered from the Saskatchewan Learning Distribution Centre at : (306) 787-5987.

The prices listed are only approximations. It would be beneficial to verify them with the publishers or distributors before ordering. The distributors are indicated with an acronym in parentheses in each bibliographical notation. The addresses of the publishers and distributors are found at the end of the resource list in alphabetical order by the acronym as indicated in the notation. Please note that these addresses and especially e-mail addresses and Websites are subject to change. To examine resources before purchasing, communicate directly with the publisher or distributor.

Middle Level Programs

Ça marche!

The Ça marche! program which is recommended for the middle level follows a multidimensional curriculum. It is based on a communicative/experiential approach as outlined in the National Core French Study. The development of reading, writing, and oral communication strategies is encouraged. A variety of assessment tools are provided to assess student learning in the choice of Blackline Masters or in manipulable format on CD-ROM. Students participate in a variety of pair and group work activities. Activities have been developed to accommodate the needs of multiple intelligences in the Core French classroom.

The Ça marche program identifies possible adaptations and enrichments for activities and for the final project. It includes suggestions for differentiating instruction and learning through multiple intelligences. Ça marche provides extensive teacher support on its website including samples of student projects, links to websites to enhance cultural learning, and teacher professional development resources. Journal writing is an integrated part of each unit and suggestions for student portfolios are included. Each level of Ça marche begins with an introductory unit.

This commercial program is available in modules. Modules include a student book, teacher's resource guide, workbook, a blackline master version of the workbook, CD, and a videocassette. The student book is very well-outlined, colourful and easy to understand with clear, specific instructions.
